

ECHOES OF TUESDAY.

Some interesting new things about the Big Demonstration.

ENTERTAINING VISITING CLUBS.

How it was done and who did it—The Ladies' Excellent Work in that Respect—The Young Men's Republican Escort Club Receives a Magnificent Banner.

The rush of news and lack of space in yesterday's issue compelled the omission of several important items in connection with the big McKinley demonstration.

Yesterday the boys naturally felt a little sore after their long march, and lots of them limped around very lame. The route was long, and it took a little fortitude and determination to go over it all. Right here it is in order to say that the clubs from the lower section did not show their appreciation of the fact that the route was extended to that quarter. They dropped out when they reached their own stamping ground. They should have gone over the whole route, as should every club and man in the parade.

The visitors all got away safe at a late hour, and all of them expressed themselves as delighted with their treatment at the hands of the Wheelingites.

In this connection too much cannot be said of the way the ladies worked and aided in the entertainment of the visiting clubs at the Central Republican hall. They had just one day to work it up in, and the success they met with is astonishing. The Central hall was nicely cleaned and decorated, and the members of the Escort Club put in the morning carrying in benches, boards, trestles, etc., and putting up tables. The ladies were in the meantime busily engaged in preparing the provisions that had been procured, making coffee and getting things ready for the dinner. By half past eleven everything was in readiness, and the scene in the hall was a fine one. Two tables, one on each side, took up the full length of the hall. Between, shorter tables were spread, and all were filled with the best lunch imaginable. In the rear was an improvised kitchen, where the coffee and all warm victuals were prepared. The lunch consisted of sandwiches of all kinds, baked beans, sardines, potato salads, fruits, cream, coffee, etc., and everything was in abundance.

The ladies, assisted by several colored boys, waited on the tables, and saw that no person left without having all he wanted to eat.

Among those to whom honor is due for the active part they took in the matter are Mrs. Hugh Sterling, Mrs. E. C. Harrey, Mrs. Henry Seamon, Mrs. Frank Stanton, Mrs. Harry Travis, Mrs. W. H. Travis, Mrs. Dr. Reeler, Miss Mae Reeler, Mrs. Bertha Baer, Mrs. S. F. Phillips, Mrs. D. G. Morgan, Mrs. F. C. Gehring, Mrs. Captain Rawling, Mrs. James Rhodes, Mrs. G. G. Murdoch, Miss Sue Murdoch, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, Misses Tillie Wilson, Bird Kitchem, Dora Wincher and others. The whole affair of entertaining and receiving the visitors was under the charge of the Young Men's Escort Club, and the members of that brilliant organization may well feel proud of the splendid way each minute detail was carried out. The boys had their hands full, but they got through with their big undertaking in great shape.

A FINE BANNER.

Presented to the Young Men's Escort Club by their Lady Friends. The prettiest and most attractive banner in the parade Tuesday night was the one carried by the Young Men's Escort Club. It was its first time out and it's a beauty. It is made of pure white satin and mounted on a finely polished hickory staff with fancy brass decorations, and bears the following in nicely shaded gold letters:

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN ESCORT
CLUB
WHEELING, WEST VA.

It was presented by several lady friends of the club, and the boys appreciate and prize the gift very highly. There was no presentation speech or any formalities whatever, but it was handed to the president when the club was formed into line and ready for the parade. The ladies who were the principal movers in the affair are Mrs. B. Baer, Miss Lizzie Hamilton and Miss Sue Murdoch.

Unlabeled Resented.

Mr. D. R. Major, a member of the Young Men's Democratic Club, called at the Intelligence office yesterday and said he had read the Register's unfair report of the demonstration Tuesday night, and he thought it ought to be disapproved by every fair minded man. The Register put the number of men in line at less than 2,000, but Mr. Major said he counted the men at Twenty-first street as it passed down Main, and there were exactly 3,599 men in the ranks.

Echoes of the Parade.

The visitors enjoyed it. The "foam" bill ghost caught on in great shape.

The mottoes were many in number and appropriate.

There are no flies on the Tariff Champions.

The free trade mule was strictly in it. So were the oxen.

Red fire was burned in larger quantities than ever before.

Shoe merchants are the greatest advocates of long marches.

Washington turned out in great shape and made quite an impression.

Moundsville, Bellaire, Bridgeport, Martin's Ferry, Clayville and the rest all did nobly.

The Heatherington brass band headed the Bellaire club and not Hackett's band as was stated.

Now for Pittsburgh. Every Republican club should be represented there two weeks from next Saturday.

A number of the members of the American and other Pittsburgh clubs remained in the city until last night.

Little Willie Campbell, the drum major of the Champion's corps, attracted the attention of all bystanders. Billy is cute.

The Allegheny General Republican club is made up of fine looking gentlemen, and they cut quite a figure in the escort and parade.

The decorations along the entire line were as fine and numerous as any displayed in Wheeling in a long time. Each Republican, it seemed, tried to outdo his neighbor.

COMMENCEMENT Sunday, October 2, Ohio River railroad train No. 1, will leave Wheeling at 6 o'clock a. m., central time.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and about the City.

OPERA HOUSE this evening—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew.

THE South Side fishing club will give a ball at Westwood's hall November 4. "SOUTH BEFORE THE WAR" closed its engagement at the Grand last night to good business.

CONCERT at the Grand to-night for the benefit of the Home for Aged and Friendless Women.

CARDS have been issued by the South Side Turners for a ball to be given by them on Friday night, November 4.

ALL of the druggists in the city have agreed to close on Saturday during the hours from 1 to 5 p. m. and from 8 to 10 p. m.

A MARRIAGE license was yesterday issued to Albert M. Jones, aged twenty-five, and Louisa Dauber, aged twenty-two, both of Wheeling.

GENERAL C. C. WATTS spoke to the Democrats of Elm Grove last night, having a fair sized audience. The Kenna club, of this city, went out and acted as his escort.

THE Ancient Order of Mogullians will turn out dressed in Mother Hubbard wrappers between 8 and 9 o'clock tomorrow evening. This will be their way of celebrating Columbian day.

HEREAFTER all organizations giving balls in the city will have to pay the license fee of $5. The law has not been enforced in the past, but Council has directed that it shall be in the future.

FRIDAY being a legal holiday, the banks will all be closed, and the usual rules governing such days will be in force. Business of all kinds will be largely suspended, at least for a part of the day.

A CELEBRATION of the Columbian anniversary by the Arion society will take place this evening at its hall on the South End. There will be an attractive concert, an address and other appropriate exercises.

SELDOM is any attraction billed as is the coming one at the Opera House. Boards were attached to all the unused lamp posts in the central part of town Tuesday. Colonel Ed Brues is the genius who forces attractions on the public attention in this way.

HARRY WILLIAMS, who changed an order for $20 for board, to be taken out of his wages, to $120, was arraigned before Squire Arkle on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The evidence was partly heard and the hearing adjourned till this morning.

THE Tariff Champions and the Young Men's Escort Club will hold very important meetings at their rooms to-night, to arrange for their turnout in the Columbian celebration parade to-morrow. More new uniforms for the Champions have arrived, and those desiring to join should be on hand at to-night's meeting.

A CHANGE has been made in the hour for beginning of the oyster supper at St. Alphonsus church Friday evening. It will commence at 6 p. m., and will be given in the basement of the church. The Opera House orchestra will furnish music. Those who take part in the Columbian Day parade will find here a good hot supper at a suitable hour.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

C. N. Archibald and wife, of Parkersburg, were at the McClure last night.

Miss Sue Carson, of Washington, Pa., is visiting her friend, Miss May Arkle, of this city.

Mr. John S. Naylor left yesterday for Chicago to witness the dedication of the World's Fair buildings.

Miss Bessie Lamb has returned from Mount Sterling Ky., where she has been spending the past six weeks.

J. M. Graham, of Newark, superintendent of the Central Ohio division of the B. & O., was in the city yesterday.

Gen. C. C. Watts, of Charleston, and ex-Governor E. Willis Wilson, of Charleston, were at the Windsor yesterday.

Miss Lillian Watts, of Charleston, is in town this week among friends. She is a charming young daughter of Hon. C. C. Watts.

Captain Basil T. Bowers, of New Martinsville, left last night on No. 5 on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, for Chicago and Omaha, on a business and pleasure trip. He will be gone until the middle of November.

Messrs. Frank Stamm, Charles W. List, Clark Hamilton and Major J. V. L. Rodgers went up to Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon to attend a meeting of Shriners in that city, and to assist in the initiation of a large number of candidates, to be followed by a big banquet.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

Or Rather Attempt at Robbery, at the Street Car Bar Yesterday Morning.

One of the boldest robberies that was ever attempted in Wheeling and proved unsuccessful is said to have taken place at the Wheeling street railway barns yesterday morning about 1 o'clock.

It appears that the watchman, Mr. Charles Cullom, was going about his usual work, when four masked men confronted him with revolvers and ordered "hands up." They then demanded the key of the safe, which Mr. Cullom did not have. They then bound and gagged him and carried to an empty freight car standing near and placing him there left him to return to the barn. When they reached there it is thought that they were frightened off by several employees who had just arrived. Mr. Cullom finally managed to release himself and give the alarm.

Mercantile Club Hop.

The Mercantile club opened the social season for the coming winter in a very pleasant manner last evening by giving a big swell hop at the club rooms in Franzheim's hall. About thirty couples were present to enjoy the occasion. The affair was full dress, the toilets of the ladies being especially fine.

The Opera House orchestra furnished the music. At midnight the guests adjourned to the Hotel Windsor, where an elegant supper was served, after which dancing was resumed. Among the guests present from out of the city were: Miss Bennett, of Peoria, Ill.; Mr. Sid Florsheim, of Findlayville, Pa.; Mr. Sid Kleinschneider, of Mr. Simon Klee, of Pittsburgh; Mr. Lee Sonneborn, Mr. Al Luchs and Mr. L. Sonneborn, of Bellaire.

A speech in German.

On Saturday evening Gen. F. W. Holls, of New York, a fine man and eloquent orator, of national reputation, will make a speech in German at Forty-first and Jacob streets. The Young Men's Escort Club will escort him to the place of meeting.

Friday night Judge D. J. McDaid, of Iowa, formerly of Wheeling, will speak in the hall at Elm Grove.

A change of Venue Probable.

TAUNTON, MASS., Oct. 19.—It is rumored that a change of venue may be asked for in the Borden case, should it ever come to trial, and, if granted, Plymouth county will probably be the locality selected. Two Pinkerton detectives are now at work on the case in and about Fall River for the defense, it is said.

WEDDINGS YESTERDAY.

Assistant City Engineer White and Miss Carrie Higgins Wed.

Yesterday morning at the Disciples' church Mr. A. L. White, assistant city engineer, and Miss Carrie Higgins were married by Rev. Jabez Hall, of Richmond, an uncle of the bride. The Episcopal wedding service was used. The bridal couple entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mr. A. F. Sherratt, and he played softly throughout the ceremony, closing as the newly wedded pair withdrew, with the Mendelssohn march. The ushers were Mr. John B. Wilson, Mr. W. L. Addy, of Pittsburgh, Mr. Guy Scott and Mr. Lucius Hoge, Jr. These were the only attendants and preceded the bride and groom to the altar, where they were met by the minister.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White left on an extended southern trip. Mr. White is a very promising young civil engineer, and the bride is a charming young woman, daughter of Mr. T. H. Higgins.

Paul Worthen.

At Wellsburg yesterday afternoon Mr. Samuel O. Paul and Miss Lottie Worthen were united in marriage. Rev. Mr. Shields, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. Mr. John Palmer, Mr. Sam Caldwell, Mr. Sam Jacob and Mr. Richard Paxton were ushers. Miss Mary Worthen, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Harry Paul, Miss Mary Boyd and Mr. Archie Paul, of Wheeling, were the attendants. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Paul left on an extended eastern trip.

Ebeling-White.

At half past nine o'clock yesterday forenoon, Mr. George Ebeling, the well known South Side druggist, and Miss Kate Leslie Waite, a well known and beautiful young lady of the South End, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. H. Cooke, in the study of the Second Presbyterian church, and was very quiet and unostentatious. At 10:05 Mr. and Mrs. Ebeling left for a western tour.

Jones-Dauber.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the residence of Rev. E. H. Dornblaser, pastor of the English Lutheran church, who officiated, the principals being Mr. Albert M. Jones, of Thirteenth street, the well known Fulton letter carrier, and Miss Louisa Dauber, a handsome and popular young lady. The presents received were notably numerous and handsome.

John Lemon's Funeral.

The body of John Lemon, the B. & O. brakeman who was killed in the yard here on Tuesday, will be taken to Elm Grove for interment this afternoon at 1:30 by his fellow employees. A special train will leave Twenty-fourth street on the B. & O. road at that hour, and all railroad men and their families are invited to attend the obsequies.

The B. & O. employees bought a fine floral offering yesterday and sent it to the home of Lemon.

Mr. Webster at Charleston.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. CHARLESTOWN, W. VA., Oct. 19.—A grand Republican rally here this evening was addressed by Hon. P. S. Webster. It was a strong speech and there was a big house and great enthusiasm. Mr. Webster answered Mr. Wilson on his plea that reciprocity is a fraud, and spoke on tariff and honest money for two hours.

The Championship series.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19.—Cleveland lost for the second time in the championship series to-day. The contest was a pretty one, and the suspense was not over until the last man was out. Stiverts and Young were in the box. McCarthy won the game for Boston by a pretty base hit that brought in the run that needed to win. Weather fine. Attendance 6,000. Score:

Cleveland..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2

Earned, Cleveland 2, Boston, 3. Two base hits, Burkett, Quinn and Stiverts. Stolen bases, McCarthy. Left on bases, Cleveland 6, Boston 5. First on base, Childs. Time, 1:35. Umpires, Emalie and Snyder. Errors, Boston 2. Hits, 8 and 9. Pitcher, Young and Stiverts.

Another London Murder.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The body of a woman, horribly mutilated, badly decomposed and partly devoured by rats was found in the cellar of a house near Old-lane to-day. It proved to be that of Mrs. Joseph Mellor, wife of the occupant of the house, and he was at once placed under arrest. The body had evidently lain in the cellar for weeks and all the time Mellor has lived there. When the discovery was made Mellor was at work digging a hole below the kitchen floor, which he had torn up, supposedly a grave in which to bury the body. The odor throughout the house was awful.

Mrs. Mellor was last seen alive September 3. It is believed that her jewelry was the cause of the crime.

The school Parade in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.—The parade of the boys of the public schools late this afternoon was one of the most inspiring spectacles Cincinnati has witnessed in many a day. The numbers were almost startling. The discipline was most satisfactory, for while every boy was practically free from restraint, the order observed in the parade was better than that in ordinary processions of men. Abundant music was provided, no accidents happened, and the 20,000 boys, as the figures were given by the superintendent, have the satisfaction of having given one of the most successful parades ever seen in Cincinnati.

Earthquake in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—Three distinct earthquake shocks of three to five vibrations each were noticed in Martinsville this morning at 10 o'clock. The shocks were five minutes apart. The trembling of the earth was plainly perceptible, and the people were greatly alarmed, but no damage was done.

River Report.

The river last night was stationary at one foot 3 inches.

The reports from headwaters were as follows:

Warren, Pa.—River stationary at low water mark; clear and cool.

Brownsville, Pa.—River 4 feet 9 inches and stationary; clear.

Morgantown, W. Va.—River 4 feet 6 inches and stationary; cool.

GEN. SCHOFIELD'S REPORT.

Recommendations for the Better Efficiency of the Army.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—"Domestic violence in some of the states has rendered necessary the use of military force in support of the civil authorities," says General Schofield in his report. In the case of the young state of Idaho, the militia organization had not yet reached the strength necessary to cope with a very formidable insurrection, which had involved much destruction of life and property in the Coeur d'Alene mining region.

The report shows that in Wyoming it has also been necessary to employ troops to prevent conflict between armed parties and citizens.

In regard to small arms and field artillery the report states that when the troops are furnished with the magazine small arms selected by a board, they will be as well equipped as any troops in the world.

General Schofield earnestly recommends that no time be lost in providing a full supply of these arms for the regular troops and the organized militia of the several states, and also a considerable reserve supply for issue to volunteers whenever the latter may be called into service. He also urges that the necessary appropriation be made for a full supply of the most approved breech loading rifled field gun for the light batteries of both the regular and volunteer troops. Continuing, the report states that a substantial beginning has been made in the fortification and armament of the sea coasts of the United States, as well as in the construction of a new navy worthy of a great and prosperous country. It is urged that there be allowed no lapse in the annual appropriations necessary to the continued prosecution of this great work.

General Schofield renews his former recommendations for the passage of the three battalion measure pending before Congress. Concluding, the report says that for many years the harmony of the war department was disturbed and the efficiency of the military service impaired by conflicts of authority between the staff departments and the commanding officers of the army. But wiser theories of administration and more moderate views of the authority of subordinates have been gradually established until the right to exercise independent authority within the command of the administrative sphere of a superior is now rarely claimed, and all departments of the military service generally work in harmony and due subordination to carry into effect the requirements of law and the orders of the President and secretary of war.
